Course overview

Short description

While critically reviewing the current theories and practices of humanitarian leadership and people management, this course aims to ascertain the leadership capacities of participants and situating their preferred management style. In plenary sessions or peer-works, discussions and exercises will question emotional competencies, authority vs. authoritarianism, stress management and institutional vision. Licensed coaches, humanitarian professionals and psychologists will accompany participants in an approach that considers the human being in each worker.

Objectives of the course

At the end of the course, you will be able to:

- Manage and lead people according to the essential principles of diversity, inclusion and duty of care
